RAINS BRING FLOODS TO THE DUST BOWL

W. T. Opens Summer Session Next Tuesday

PROGRAM FOR SUMMER HAS NEW FEATURES

Summer Enrollment To Start Tuesday Morning For the 26th Summer Quarter

PLANS ANNOUNCED

Coaching School Will Bring Large Number—Attendance Promise Is Reported Good

The twenty-sixth annual summer session of the college will begin next Tuesday, and indications are that the enrollment will be unusually large, for rooms are rapidly being taken and apartments are much in demand all over town.

The furniture for the addition to Cousins Hall is being installed this week, so the capacity of that dormitory will be increased fifty percent. Randall and Stafford Halls, Buffalo Courts and the houses at the College Farm are all being put in order for the new occupants who will come in next week. A number of summer students are already in town, having come to Canyon immediately after their schools were closed.

From the first week, this year's summer terms will be characterized by special lectures, many of which will be of interest to the general public. Citizens of the town are invited to acquaint themselves with the summer schedule and to attend any lectures which they wish.

During the first week there will probably be a lecture by Dr. Earl D. McBride, orthopedic surgeon of Oklahoma City. He is one of the most able bone specialists of the entire southwest, his work with crippled children having won him wide recognition and gratitude of hundreds of parents and children. He has worked for several years with the Junior League of Amarillo in assisting children. It is expected that Dr. McBride will be in Canyon for his lecture the last of next week, and further announcement will be made in the Canyon News.

Farmers Given To June 10th Complete Signing Program

The job of signing work sheets on farms in Randall County under the new Soil Conservation Program is just about finished, according to the various committeemen who turned in work sheets for their districts Tuesday at the County Agent's office. Eight hundred and twenty-three farms have been accounted for up to Tuesday afternoon. About ninety-five percent of the farms of the county are now covered by work sheets and are eligible for grants under the new program.

It was learned yesterday that payments for compliance will be substantially more than was expected. The definite figure is expected to be released within a few days. This will be very welcome news to many farmers who lost their wheat crop in the drought earlier in the season. Most farmers are already in position to comply very easily with the provisions of the new program for this year.

An extension of the time limit for filing work sheets has been granted to accommodate the few operators who could not contact their committeemen in the limited time allowed after work sheets were ready for signing.

The final closing date has been set for June 10th. No work sheets can be received after that date.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller moved Monday to their new home on Third Avenue, which they recently bought from Mrs. A. W. Hamill.

BUSINESS HOUSES TO START WEEKLY PROGRAM

WPA Will Start Basement Museum On Next Monday

Force of Men Will Be Divided on Three Projects According to Present Plans

Work will be started on excavation of the basement of the Museum addition next Monday, stated Frank Harrison, yesterday. Forty men will be transferred from other WPA jobs to this work, which will require 26 working days. By that time it is hoped that a contract will be let for the completion of the building. This will take about $17,000 which has been set aside from the $25,000 Centennial fund awarded the Historical Society.

Mr. Harrison states that 17 men will continue on the street widening job, and 35 on the various campus projects.

Topping of the streets on the campus will be held up until the widening is completed so that all topping may be done at the same time.

While no definite word has been received as to the continuation of WPA after July 1st, it is considered that the work will continue in the sections which need assistance. A change in the set-up is likely to be made for the coming year, however, but these changes have not been announced from Washington. It is believed that as soon as congress adjourns the President will announce his plans for the coming year.

Funeral of Clarence Emory Bosley Held Monday Afternoon

Clarence Emory Bosley, 45, died Sunday afternoon at the home of his mother, Mrs. S. M. Bosley. He had lived in Amarillo for 14 years but had been here for three months, living at his mother's home.

The funeral service was held at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Griggs-Thompson Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. Chas. L. Dickey. Interment followed in Dreamland Cemetery.

Surviving is the wife, Mrs. Frankie Bosley; one daughter, Opal Glens Bosley; four sons, Clifford, Tracy, William, Clarence Jr.; his mother, Mrs. S. M. Bosley; three brothers, L. F. Bosley of Gainesville, Cecil and Max, of Canyon; three sisters, Mrs. M. Johnson of Albuquerque; Mrs. E. O. Morgan of Wilcoxville, Cal.; Mrs. Juanita Wagner of Gainesville.

Randall 4-H Girls To Hold Dress Contest

Plans have been completed for the Randall County girls' 4-H clubs dress contest which will be held June 3 at 2 p. m. in the auditorium of the Education building at W. T.

The divisions of the contest are the demonstrators; co-operators between 10 and 12 years of age and co-operators over 13 years of age. The Randall County Home Demonstration Council will give the winner of the demonstrators division a prize. First prize for the co-operators is being offered by the J. J. Walker Drug Store.

Everyone interested is invited to attend this meeting next week and inspect the girls' work.

FREIGHT KILLED FIVE COWS THURSDAY MORNING

A fast freight on the Santa Fe ran into a herd of cows early Thursday morning west of Canyon, killing five.

The cows were from the pasture of Mrs. L. L. Monroe.

Gas Line Leading To Canyon Breaks By Flood Waters

Canyon was without gas Monday from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 6 o'clock owing to a break in the line leading into town at the Thomas place east of town.

Officials of the company were awakened by the alarm signal at 2:15 o'clock Monday morning as water in the Tierra Blanca reached the highest point it has attained since the pipe line was run into Canyon. In crossing the creek it was thought that the line was high enough to avoid difficulties by high water.

Although the line broke under a head of three feet of water, sufficient gas managed to jump the gap to continue serving the town until early in the afternoon. Water was sprayed high into the air by the escaping gas.

Sixteen pipeline men were called from Lubbock, Plainview, Hereford and Amarillo and worked all day making the repair.

Rotary Club Will Have Joint Meeting With Amarillo

No meeting will be held of the Canyon Rotary Club next Tuesday but a joint meeting with the Amarillo Rotary Club will be held next Thursday night at Cousins Hall. Rotary Anns of both clubs will be guests.

Reports were heard Tuesday from Secretary Lee Johnson and President-Elect Harry Brown on the district convention held at Fort Worth. Clarence Eugene Thompson gave a negro dialect reading. Visitors present were: W. S. Norman, A. A. Meredith, P. A. Zimpher, O. W. Wright, Leroy White, Ben Anderson, Arch Huntsley, Irving White, all of Amarillo; R. A. Bellah and John Knight.

Do Your Shopping in Canyon.

June 10th First Date For Awarding Customers of Canyon Business Houses

TO START MONDAY

Committees Working City Today Enlisting Support of All the Business Houses

Starting June 10th the business firms of Canyon will entertain their customers on the court house lawn every Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The plan formerly used in making a distribution of $40 weekly will be resumed, but the day set aside will be each Wednesday, instead of Saturday.

A committee from the Chamber of Commerce will canvass the business houses today, and all business firms will be asked to join in the movement. It is planned to start distributing tickets with cash purchases on next Monday, June 1st.

The people of the county were highly pleased with the weekly plan of cash distribution which was formerly used, and the business firms are glad to resume the offering to those who buy in Canyon.

Business firms who will enter into the campaign are asked to place their order for tickets with The News on Thursday or Friday to be assured of having them ready for distribution starting Monday morning.

Wednesday will be observed as bargain day in Canyon during the summer, and business firms are asked to make special inducements for the benefit of those who will come for this feature.

BUYS MORE LAND

R. E. Baird has bought two sections of grazing land adjoining his ranch southwest of Canyon. The land is known as the Stocker place.

Judge E. H. Small Died Monday Home In Wellington

WELLINGTON, May 25—Judge E. H. Small, 76, father of State Senator Clint C. Small of Amarillo, died here early today. A heart attack was responsible.

A pioneer settler, Judge Small came here in 1891.

He was a retired cattleman, merchant and at one time had been president of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank at Shamrock. He probably was one of the best-known men in the Panhandle.

Funeral services were arranged for 5 p. m. tomorrow at the first Methodist Church in Shamrock, with the Rev. R. Thompson of Amarillo officiating. He will be buried in the Shamrock cemetery.

Judge Small was survived by five daughters and three sons: Mrs. Fred Holmes, Mrs. Temple Atkins, and Mrs. E. H. Kromer, all of Shamrock; Mrs. Walter Mount of Amarillo; Mrs. Cleo Templeton of Wellington; Senator Clint Small of Amarillo; Horace Small of Oklahoma City, and Hugh Small of Wellington.

Walter Irvin, Inc., Leases Gulf Station—Possession June 3

Walter Irvin, Inc., Ford dealers, have leased the Gulf Service Station at the northwest corner of the square in connection with the Ford building. This company will take over the operation on June 3rd. A formal opening date will be announced next week, and souvenirs will be distributed at that time.

J. C. Baker has operated this station since the Gulf opened the station more than three years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dufort and family moved Monday to the Barnett house on Seventh which they recently purchased.

Commencement of W. T. Will Come To Close Today

Degrees Are Being Given 94 at Program—Exes Hold Luncheon Today at Randall

Commencement exercises for W. T. will close today. A program filled with interest for the students, faculty members, and friends of the college started Saturday, and programs have been held each day.

The gift selected by the Seniors this year was a diorama of a campfire scene of cowboy days when the Panhandle was the home of the cattleman. The diorama will be placed in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum. Included in the scene will be a miniature chuckwagon, a hobbled horse standing nearby, and the other objects which were found around the camp of cowboys on the range.

Dr. C. C. Grimes, pastor of the Polk Street Methodist church in Amarillo, preached the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning.

"Education is the development and enrichment of personality," was the definition he gave in developing his subject, "The Law of Creation."

"Nothing gives one more pleasure than realizing that he has done something creative," he said. Creations make impressions that last, he asserted. "Small children build from the time they are toddlers. One often ceases to cultivate his creative abilities after he reaches maturity," he said.

"It doesn't take a great man to handle the creation in the materialistic plane," Dr. Grimes told the class. In accounting for the achievement during the age of the Renaissance, he said that the people of that age did not have their minds entirely filled with practical (Continued on last page)

Memorial Day Will Be Observed Sunday By American Legion

A short Memorial Day service will be held Sunday afternoon at the Methodist Church by the Palo Duro Post. Graves of all soldiers at Dreamland Cemetery will be decorated in advance of the program. The program was transferred to the Church owing to the mud at the cemetery.

Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum will talk on the significance of the day. A reading will be given by Miss Irene Angel. Appropriate music will be provided.

Two Boys Fined For Shooting in Palisades Park

Two Amarillo boys were fined last week for the use of pistols at the Palisades State Park. Sheriff R. N. Barrett made the arrest, and the boys were called into the court of W. H. Speake, new justice of the peace in the north part of the county. County Attorney J. D. Barker handled the case for the county.

Infringement of the law at The Palisades and the Palo Duro Canyon is being carefully checked by the officers. Several arrests have been made in the Palo Duro recently on various charges.

The Palisades Park is drawing large crowds since the increased fee has been made at the Palo Duro. No admission charge is made at The Palisades.

Henry Cone made a business trip to Oklahoma City, Tuesday.

5.50 INCHES OF RAIN FALLS IN THIS SECTION

Creeks Out of Banks and Lakes Filled as Result of Rains Falling Past Week

PANHANDLE SOAKED

Every Section Receives Plenty of Moisture—Rains Every Day Since Last Monday

Rain has fallen every day in Randall county since Monday of last week when a downpour of 1.85 inches covered almost all parts of the county.

Since rain started falling, the moisture amounts to 5.50 inches, making this by far the largest amount of moisture that has fallen in the county in four years.

Not all sections of the county have received this amount of rainfall. The Sunny Hill sector trails all other parts of the county, with only about two inches having fallen up to yesterday. From reports, it is indicated that all other sections of the county have received from 5 to 8 inches of rainfall.

The Tierra Blanca Creek has been out of its banks since last week. A five inch rain at Friona brought down a flood last week, and the continued rains to the west have kept the waters at flood peaks.

For the first time since the highway was paved, water went over the highway grade early Monday morning. For several hours traffic was stopped as the water was too high for cars to cross the bottoms of the Tierra Blanca. This flood was the result of very heavy rains west of Canyon Sunday evening. Considerable damage was done to the roadbed (Continued on last page)

Relief Headquarters Will Be Moved During Coming Week

Relief headquarters for Randall county will be moved during the coming week as C. R. Burrow will wreck the building which has been the headquarters during the past two years. This building was formerly the lumber yard of Foxworth-Galbraith Co., purchased by Mr. Burrow.

Selection of a new location had not been made yesterday. The county furnishes the building for headquarters.

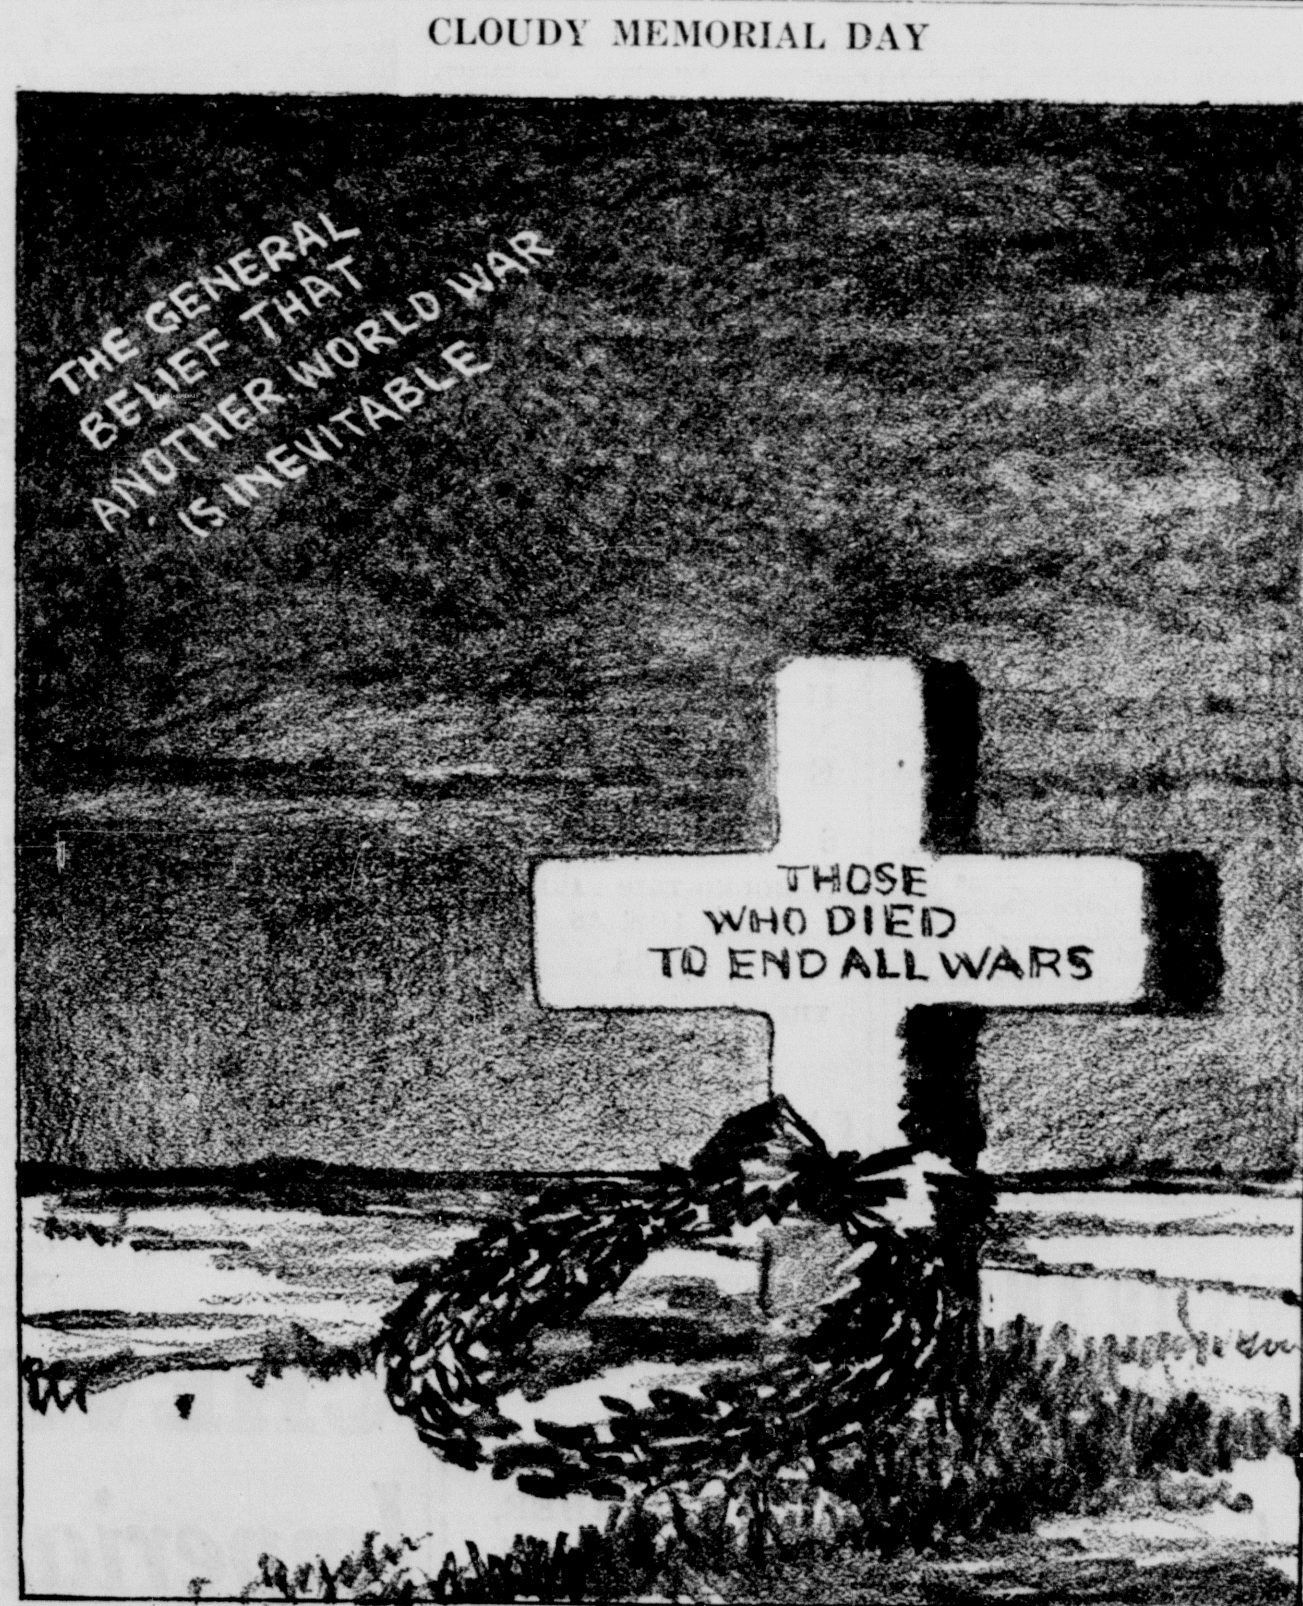

Mrs. Irene Sloan, who is in charge of the relief work in the county, has received notice that the Texas Relief Commission will cut its force 60% June 1st, and that she will have all of the work in this county in the future. Only one check will be issued to those on direct relief during June.

Commodities are on hand to run for some time, although the recent fire in the Amarillo warehouse destroyed many commodities which would have been distributed throughout the summer in the counties of this territory.

Body of James E. Pugh Shipped To Reno For Burial

Owner and Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 PER YEAR

Entered at the postoffice at Canyon, Texas, as second class matter. Published weekly at office, 1513 Fourth Avenue, Canyon, Texas.

The school fund of Texas was increased $1.00 per capita two weeks ago by the State Board of Education after it was found that a surplus existed in this fund for the year. Rather than carry the fund forward next year in order to allow a reduction in the tax rate, the Board voted to divide the money. Coming at the end of the year, the added money was of no benefit to the schools which were forced to close owing to the shortage of funds; and was of no benefit for this school year to schools that were about to close. At the best, it will make possible a surplus in the local funds of a majority of the districts at the start of next year's term. The result will be a temptation to either expand the school expenditures next year, or to reduce local taxes for the year, trusting that the state will continue its policy of an enlarged appropriation above the amount set by the legislature. Had the amount available been less than the minimum set by the legislature, the law makers would have been called upon to make up the difference, as has been the case a number of years. Since the general fund of the state is about ten million dollars in the red, and many, many times has come to the aid of the school fund, it seems to The News that the State Board of Education would have acted more wisely in turning its surplus funds to the general funds rather than ordering the extra distribution in order to get rid of the fund before the state automatic tax board sets the tax rate for next year's collection.

Mussolini accomplished in one short year in Ethiopia what all of the so-called wise political writers predicted would take him ten years to do. The accomplishment was in spite of the League of Nations which threw every stumbling block in the path of Italy. Evidently Mussolini feels secure in being able to hold the territory conquered, or feels the necessity of a strong army at home, since many of the shock troops are being recalled and placed on the northern boundary of the nation. Success may have swollen the head of El Duce until he might become a raging bull in Europe. In spite of a bankrupt nation, Mussolini seems to be able to accomplish much more than he was ever given credit by his enemies. Just how far his ambitions will lead him is something that only Mussolini knows. Uneasiness prevails in Europe in a greater degree as a result of the victorious conquest which Mussolini has put over.

Physical handicaps do not always permanently whip the ambitions of young men. Homer E. Minor of Plainview has spent his life in a wheel chair, but operates one of the two largest and most successful magazine agencies in the United States. This week he joins forces with the operator of the other large agency and moves to Lexington, Ky. Most young men afflicted as is Minor would have long ago given up the fight and been content as a ward of society. Darrell Webb takes his degree from W. T. today. Young Webb is blind, but in spite of his affliction graduated from the Amarillo high school, the Amarillo Junior College, and now W. T. Perhaps the lack of eyes has shielded Webb from many of the ugly sights of this modern civilization and allowed him to enjoy the beauties of nature and appreciate real friends as revealed through the real kindnesses of those with whom he came in contact. It is always a joy to see those who fight on in spite of physical handicaps.

Blessed rains converted the dust bowl into the mud bowl during the past week. Records of several years were broken as the rains continued to fall during the week. While the downpour almost equaled a cloud burst in some parts of the Panhandle, the downpour in Randall county was slow and gentle, with practically all of the moisture going into the ground. The value of contour listing has certainly been justified by this rain. Lister rows stood full of water long after the rain stopped falling, in the fields which were listed on the contour, whereas the water was lost in the fields which had not been listed on the contour. It is unlikely that farmers of Randall county will ever again use any other method than contouring, with the experience which was gained last year, and that which will be gained this year by this method of listing.

As a whole the dole for needy people would have been cheaper than the works programs which have been used in this nation. But mere cheapness is not always the better plan. As experience shows, all of the projects in Randall county have been useful, and are for the permanent improvement of the community. If some communities have wasted the public works money, there is no sense in condemning the system as a whole. Much benefit has been derived over the nation from the money which has been invested in improvements which local communities needed, but which they were not in position to provide at the present time. The dole would have kept men and women from starving at a less price than these projects would cost, but no public benefit would have been derived.

The Star-Telegram pays a glowing tribute to Senator Clint Small

Speed Bests Fire as 40,000 Thrill

Riding a motorcycle through a blazing tent, Bill Swan escaped injury in a show staged by the Los Angeles police department, attended by a crowd of 40,000. Swan's 65-mile-an-hour speed protected himself, his clothing, and the motorcycle. The large tent through which he sped had been saturated with gasoline before being set afire.

and endorses his re-election in the 31st Senatorial District. Senator Small is recognized as the outstanding leader in the Texas Senate, and should be re-elected. This section has long cried out because of the injustices enacted against it by the other sections of the state. This has not been true during the past eight years while Senator Small has been on the firing line for West Texas and has defended the rights of the people of this section. It is always a bad policy to trade off a good senator who is working on the job for a man who is untrained, regardless how good he may appear to be.

News from behind the scenes in Washington indicates that Jesse Jones will soon be supreme in handling the finances of relief and public works. The President has learned of the ability of the head of RFC and is gradually shifting the financial responsibility to his shoulders. RFC has been a most successful agency. Loans made to the big banks, corporations and railroads are being repaid with sufficient interest to more than pay the operating expenses of this department. This record pleases the President, and should please every taxpayer. Without doubt Jesse Jones of Texas is the ablest financier in Washington.

The Rochester N. Y. Democrat and Chronicle plasters down the nation with copies of its May 4th issue dedicated to the principles and history of the Republican party. While democratic in name, the newspaper is thoroughly Republican in principle, and shouted to the nation that the New Deal must be defeated or ruin faced the nation. This edition is on a par with the one sowed over the nation in January by the New York Sun. It is more and more evident that the manufacturing East will line up solidly under the Republican banner to fight politically the producing West and South.

After reading how little the American people think of his ability to run the nation, Hoover decided that he did not choose to run. His campaign of derision against the New Deal throughout the past year has not particularly strengthened his political position in this nation.

Townsend walked out on the House investigation committee, and now the committee is wondering what to do about it. Townsend admitted that his collections had greatly diminished since the light had been turned upon his $200-per-month scheme.

Haile Selassie has been offered a fabulous sum to come to the Centennial this year. We were under the impression that the Centennial was organized to tell the world about Texas and Texas history. Why not invite Ghandi?

Mrs. W. E. Bennett, chairman of the expansion committee, reported ten families helped for the first time by the demonstration clubs.

GOOD GROOMING STUDIED BY WEST SIDE

"Cleanliness and neatness are the underlying principles of good grooming, and since grooming is indicative of breeding, we sometimes feel surprised when we see one not well groomed." In a talk to the ladies of the West Side Club assembled at the home of Mrs. J. M. Carruth last Friday afternoon, Miss Allie Dozier based her remarks upon what grooming really means.

Mrs. B. A. Burrus, president, presided at the meeting, and roll call by Mrs. W. C. Roberts was answered with "Hints on Personal Hygiene." Plans were outlined for a social meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. William Ash.

Ice punch with cookies was served to Mrs. B. A. Burrus, Mrs. William Ash, Mrs. L. A. Donnell, Mrs. W. C. Roberts, Mrs. J. J. Wright, Mrs. C. L. Gordon-Cummings, Mrs. Clark Ash, Mrs. E. N. Zachery, and Miss Allie Dozier.

ANDREWS AND WEATHERBY MARRY SATURDAY

Miss Frankie Andrews and Howard C. Weatherby were married Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the home of Rev. R. L. Hicks, Baptist minister.

The bride was attired in a dress of navy blue crepe, trimmed with white and carried white accessories. The couple were attended by two W. T. students.

Mrs. Weatherby is an ex-student and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Andrews of McLean. She had been teaching in the Center School.

Howard C. Weatherby is a '34 graduate of this institution and has been teaching also.

After the wedding, the couple left for Carlsbad, N. M., and other points of interest.

They will make their home in Lubbock at present, where Mr. Weatherby will work on his Smith-Hughes degree.

HINTS FROM HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS

The emergency shelf of canned products scored again when Mrs. Wm. Ash, Home Food Supply demonstrator in Westside club substituted cubed, canned pears, colored red, for strawberries and found that her guests were really delighted with the substitute. Entertaining her club recently, she had decided upon a dessert course of angel food cake with strawberries and whipped cream for her refreshments. After all was planned there were no strawberries to be bought. She had some delicious pears canned in heavy syrup, so she drained the syrup from the pears and colored it red. Then she cubed the pears and added to the syrup. Lemon juice was sprinkled over the mixture, and it set aside to chill for a few hours. The pears were arranged between wedge-shaped pieces of angel food cake, and topped with whipped cream. The guests thought the "imitation strawberries" very pretty as well as delicious.

Mrs. L. A. Donnell, co-operator in the Westside Home Demonstration club says: A very pretty and unusual trimming for aprons may be made in the following way: Wind on the bobbin of the sewing machine, embroidery thread of a color to harmonize or contrast with the colors in the material being used. If the embroidery thread is very coarse, loosen the lower tension. Stitch on the wrong side of the hems of collars, cuffs, pockets or wherever trimming is needed. One or more rows of stitching may be used. The effect is attractive and adds a bit of color to an otherwise plain garment.

"Out of 45 feet of rhubarb I have sold $1.67 worth since the middle of April," said Mrs. Frank Garrett, co-operator in the Lakeside H. D. Club. "Besides what I have sold we have had all we could use and have given it to the neighbors."

"The favorite dessert of my family is rhubarb ice cream sundae. I make a light syrup of sugar and water, then put the rhubarb in and cook it until it drops apart. This sauce is used on vanilla ice cream for a delicious dessert," says Mrs. Harley Burrus, co-operator in the Lakeside H. D. Club.

From 25 hills of rhubarb Mrs. Burrus has had all the rhubarb she and her neighbors could use and has sold some.

When onions were gathered last fall Mrs. J. B. Knox, co-operator of Sunny Hill club, found she had one bushel of onions which would spoil if she didn't can them. Some were pickled, some canned in syrup and the others were canned plain. She canned a total of thirty-one pints from the bushel and has found them a decided help in her meal planning.

"Don't throw away your hose and silk underwear just because they have runners in them, use them to dress up the home," says Mrs. G. H. Hardman, co-operator of the Edgetown H. D. Club. "I have made some very pretty and useful mats, scarfs and center pieces from old silk hose by cutting them in narrow strips, winding them into a ball and crocheting it into the desired pieces. I am using silk underwear the same way to make a bed spread crocheted in a spiderweb design."

"When you get your food too salty, spread a cloth over the pan and sprinkle two tablespoons of flour over it. This will absorb all of the excess salt," says Mrs. Frank Simon, co-operator of Park Home Demonstration Club.

BOOK CLUB HOLDS FINAL MEETING LAST WEEK

The Woman's Book Club held its final meeting of the year last week, with Prof. S. H. Condon as guest speaker, and with Mrs. Travis Shaw furnishing a review of "Master Sanguine," a satirical novel by Brown, an English writer and playwright.

Mr. Condon's subject was "Problems of Our Democracy." He began by saying that the greatest danger to American democracy lies in the indifference of the individual voter, who fails to inform himself, and then vote. He then suggested the changes in the problems of government now and at the time the Constitution of the United States was written, then discussed briefly a few of the economic and social questions with which government is constantly confronted today.

At the business meeting, Mrs. Ed Harrel was appointed to represent the club on the flower planting committee, which will work on the park project in the city.

Mrs. T. B. McCarter reported the co-operation of the city and the Chamber of Commerce in the work of starting and maintaining the parks, and mentioned a home beautification contest which the Chamber of Commerce is planning for next year, and with which the clubs of the town will be asked to assist.

The club will not meet again until September.

Summer Session Plans Will Take Government Out of Classroom

Men In Public Service Taking Interest, Says Condon

Taking government out of books and making it live in the classroom will be one of the purposes of a course called "Political and Economic Trends" and listed in the summer bulletin as Government 431, which will be given during the first half of the summer session.

This course has been made possible through the interest which men in public service are taking in the College, according to Prof. S. H. Condon, head of the department, who, with Pres. J. A. Hill, has secured the speakers.

Jones Will Lecture

Congressman Marvin Jones, of Amarillo, who is recognized as one of the most valuable and powerful men in the United States House of Representatives will discuss "Our National Agricultural Policy," and Judge James C. Bishop Robert E. Lucey of Amarillo will give three addresses in the series. His subjects will be "The Need of Labor Organizations," "What is Wrong with the Economic Order" and "Government and Industry."

Texas' governmental hard knots will receive more attention than those of the national government. Sen. C. C. Small, of Amarillo, a member of the Senate Finance Committee, will give two talks on "Financing Our State Government," and Ernest O. Thompson, former mayor of Amarillo, and member of the Texas Railroad Commission, will describe the work of that body.

Claude Teer, chairman of the State Board of Control, assisted by Mr. J. D. Hall, State Director of Budgets, will give three lectures with "State Budgetary Control in Texas" as his subject.

Unicameral Legislature

"Legislative Reform" will be the subject of G. H. Nelson of Tahoka, who is an advocate of a unicameral legislature for Texas, and Judge A. B. Martin of Amarillo, a member of the Seventh Supreme Judicial District, Court of Civil Appeals, will talk twice, his subject to be "Our State Court System."

"Monetary and Banking Reform" will be the subject of W. H. Patrick of Clarendon, a veteran banker, and member of the Federal Reserve Board. "Soil Erosion Control," now recognized as a public problem, will be handled by Dr. C. Laker, of the Resettlement Administration, with headquarters at Amarillo.

A certified public accountant, Mr.

G. A. Sahli, of Amarillo, will give the lecture, "Financial Problems of Local Units of Government." Mr. Sahli has assisted municipalities all over Northwest Texas in solving their difficulties.

The public will be invited to attend the lectures in this course. Credit students will be furnished a detailed syllabus at the beginning of the term and the final examination will cover both lectures and readings. This course will not be repeated in the second half of the summer.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

There will be no Evening Service of worship at the Episcopal Student Chapel this Sunday night. Rev. Warwick Aiken will be here as usual on June 7th for a service.

Senator Small Is Advocate of Tax Program in State

While economy has been uppermost in the minds of Texas legislators, slashing taxation to the bone at the present time would be like closing the barn door after the stock is gone, according to Senator Clint Small. He referred to old age assistance payments and a treasury deficit of $12,000,000 as obligations which must be met by taxpayers.

"The future now appears free of new demands for spending of the state's money," he said. "Although there have been no reckless expenditures in Texas, as compared to those in other states and by the federal government, drouth and depression compelled the legislature to pass expensive bills that otherwise would not have been introduced."

"Times are improving. The public is thoroughly conscious that free spending of state funds works a hardship on both rich and poor alike. The money must be repaid."

However, he reminded taxpayers that an overwhelming vote was given the pension amendment—an added expense of not less than $15,000,000 to be paid annually. The additional burden, he declared, calls not only for strict economy in all branches of the government but immediate new revenue to pay aged persons the pension clamored for all over the state.

"No one industry can bear sufficient taxation to relieve the strain on the state treasury," Small said. "It would be unable to compete with competitors in other states, forced to close its doors and thus destroy the goose that lays the golden egg for that much labor."

A bill Senator Small has proposed would increase the tax 25 to 35 per cent on all natural resources and on corporate interests. Revenue from such a bill, he figured, would raise but $8,000,000, when nearly twice that amount is needed.

"Either an income tax or a selective sales tax is the only other recourse," he said. "A state income tax, supplementing the federal income revenue act, seems to be objectionable to all classes in Texas. It would of necessity hit at the low-salaried group."

He suggests a tax similar to the one now on gasoline, cigarettes, whisky, beer and wine—to which no one has objected. Small believes a levy on still other non-essentials would pay the pensions and reduce the deficit.

The senator's tax analysis, made at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Amarillo, was hailed all over the state as the most logical solution yet advanced. He is generally recognized as the outstanding authority on state finances and has had a leading part in all major tax legislation of the last decade.

Rockwells Winners County Judging Of Home Improvements

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rockwell won first place in the county judging of the Centennial Farm and Home Demonstration Contest which was conducted Tuesday. Under the schedule adopted for the state, district judging will be done soon after the first of June. There are nine districts in the state. The state judging will be completed by the 15th of July.

The following description of improvements accomplished at the Rockwell home was submitted as a part of the contest:

We came here to live in 1919. The place was badly run down. The house was old, open, and inconvenient. There was trash all over the premises and the gates were heavy and sagging. We began at once to try to make the place liveable.

The water supply was good, but the equipment poor. A water barrel served as a storage tank, and the old wooden mill and tower soon had to be repaired. We bought a second hand tank and made a tower of railroad ties and began laying pipe to different parts of the place where needed.

The first spring we were here we put out an orchard, and from that orchard, when the late freezes did not kill the fruit we had an abundance of fruit, from June until October. Young trees are set out from time to time keeping the orchard renewed. We also put out shade trees and a pecan tree raised from the seed, bears sizeable well flavored nuts. At present there are fourteen different varieties of shade, fruit, and nut trees on the place.

After a few years it became necessary to put up a new mill and tank, so the old ones were replaced by an Aeromotor mill on a steel tower and a hundred barrel steel tank and steel tower. These were equipped with a force pump to put the water in at the bottom of the tank instead of the top and save a lot of frozen pipes.

Eight or nine hundred feet of pipe conducts the water to all parts of the house, garden, orchard, yard, chicken yard, cow barn, cow lot, and pasture. About two hundred and fifty feet of sub-irrigation, about half of which is home-made tile, is found to be very satisfactory. A cut-off is so fixed that all the water in the garden and orchard can be cut off by turning one lever without cutting the water off any where else. The waste water is taken care of by a siphon tank into cesspools and the clean water from the aerator runs into a duck pond.

In 1930 a new home was built and in the building of which, comfort, convenience, and no waste space was stressed. The house has five rooms and a bath on the ground floor, and a screened in front porch. A basement thirty by twenty feet furnishes place for the hot water tank, shower, wash room, furnace, 4-H pantry, coal bin with a chute from without, a bed room and much storage room.

Over two hundred varieties of shrubs, vines, flowers, and cactus plants are used in landscaping the grounds. Among which are included twenty-seven varieties of cactus plants, native and otherwise, and more than thirty varieties of native wild flowers, both of which are very interesting and beautiful. A lily pond and rock garden afford much pleasure, and native grass lawns are very drouth resistant.

A Hess furnace keeps the house warm and summery all winter, and is operated at a very low cost. A carbide plant lights the house throughout, and caw barn, which is built to conform with the standard milk ordinance.

Spring and fall gardens are always planted. From the orchard and garden, fruit and vegetables are canned, brined, and stored in pits, and canned chicken and beef raised on the place. A well balanced pantry is provided to meet the family needs.

Chickens enough are raised for meat and eggs for home use and some to sell. A fair sized dairy herd is quite an asset to the farm.

Modern machinery is used for most of the farm work, but we keep a few horses, for we find the good old "beast of burden" very useful at times. Shelter is provided for all the livestock and poultry, and water is available at all times. We plant wheat for a market crop, and oats, cane, milo maize, kafir corn, and Indian corn for feed and market, and sudan grass for pasture.

A trench silo is filled each year for winter feed. We find the Home Demonstration work very interesting and helpful, and the farm a very attractive place to live. And in all things we are trying to make "Beautiful Texas" more beautiful.

Cemetery News, Requests, and Plans

This is the first time that I have made an effort to say anything to the public about the work that has, and is being, done at Dreamland Cemetery. I have refrained from doing so because the management of the work has been directed by the Cemetery Association. The accomplishments have been the work of the different committees appointed by this association. Nothing worthy of appreciation by the public could have been accomplished without the thought, plans, and untiring efforts of these different committees. In addition the public is under obligation to the Commissioners' Court that has come to the aid of the association with financial help.

I feel that the public would like to know what it can do to help this work. This is the main reason for this article. In most things I could not ask for better treatment and consideration. The work has been pleasant to me in every way. There has been only one or two things that I have ever wanted to ask you to do.

First, when you are at work on your individual lot, do not leave trash, papers, etc., on the ground about your lot unless you weight them down, so that they will not blow about the yard, or put them in your car and take them out. There has not been enough of this as yet, to cause but very little extra work, but every bit of time that you can save me will help to promote the work.

Second, the thing that has caused more trouble than anything is the practice of backing cars on the driveways. You do not know where every hydrant is and, in your car, you cannot see where the safest thing is to drive forward at all times even, if you have to drive all the way around the cemetery or outside and back again. When a hydrant is bent down it is very sure to break off when straightened up again; then there is a plumber's bill for some one to pay. If you will observe this, one source of trouble will be eliminated.

I will have a helper this summer for the purpose of helping take care of the individual lots. His only remuneration will be what the individuals pay. Please turn all of this work that you can to him. While he is there, we will be in position to do any sort of work that you want done from keeping your lot clean to any type of concrete work.

Let me thank you for your courteous treatment, past and future.
G. M. STUART

Palo Duro Art School To Culminate In Special Trip To Taos, Santa Fe

Miss Isabel Robinson Is Director of Art Courses

The Palo Duro School of Art, a new feature of the summer session of the West Texas State Teachers College, will open June second, and continue for six weeks, culminating in an excursion to Santa Fe and Taos, N. M.

Miss Isabel Robinson will direct the new art school and will conduct the Santa Fe trip. Art galleries, Indian pueblos, prehistoric cliff dwellings and modern architecture will be observed and studied on the trip and there will be time for sketching.

Two Courses Given

Two art courses will be given in the Palo Duro School of Art this summer, both being conducted in Palo Duro State Park, 12 miles east of Canyon. One course known as Art 121, will be drawing and painting for beginners. The other, Art 341, will be advanced drawing and painting, and graduate credit will be given on it to those who are eligible to take graduate work in art.

While studying, most of the pupils of the school of art will live in cool stone cottages which have been built by the National Park Service, in the depths of Palo Duro State Park. Others will live in Canyon and will make the trip to the canyon daily for their lessons.

Visiting Artists To Assist

A group of visiting artists will assist in the classes and give criticisms each week of the school. The artist-lecturers include Frank L. Klepper of Dallas, landscape painter; Amy Jackson of Amarillo, painter, etcher and wood carver; Adele Laure Brunet, portrait and mural painter; A. W. Mack, San Antonio, portrait and landscape painter; Harold Bugbee, Clarendon, western life painter and illustrator, and Miss Miltia Hill, member of the Art Department of the West Texas State Teachers College, who has spent the past year in Europe studying in the art centers of Paris and Vienna.

The art school program includes a series of evening lectures which will deal in a popular style with science. These will be given by Professors Anna I. Hibbets, L. S. Baker, C. Stuart Johnston, Dr. Hattie M. Anderson, and Mrs. T. V. Reeves of the faculty of the college, and Mr. Floyd V. Studer, director of archaeology of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum. Horseback riding, swimming and directed physical education activities will also be featured.

Inexpensive

The Palo Duro School of Art will not be expensive. Students taking full time work for the six weeks beginning June 2 will pay twenty dollars; half time work will be ten dollars. If teachers or artists in the department take one academic subject in the college they will pay a regular state tuition fee in addition to the $10 Art fee.

Special students who enroll for only three weeks of the school whether with or without college credit will be charged a fee of twelve dollars.

According to Miss Robinson arrangements have been made for comfortable stone cabins at a rate of $4 per week. Each cabin has two three-quarter cedar beds with mattress and pillows, a fireplace, cedar table, and benches. Miss Robinson states that students in the art school should bring their own cooking equipment if they wish to live in the canyon. A number of the cabins have already been reserved and prospective students who want cabins should deposit $4 with the head of the art department before May 15.

It is expected that Canyon's cool summer climate will bring many students who are interested in painting canyons, wheat fields, cowboys, horses, cattle, wild flowers, and birds.

Best Work Exhibited

Exhibitions will be given in the art gallery of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum from time to time and it is expected that the best work of the students of the Palo Duro School will be exhibited sometime during the term.

Special interest in Palo Duro Canyon as a summer art colony location attaches to the fact that Georgia O'Keeffe, America's greatest woman artist, once lived in Canyon and painted in Palo Duro. Miss O'Keeffe expects to return during this year to visit and again paint the scenes which inspired her long before she became famous.

Palo Duro Peeps

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Collman of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dugan and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller and family were dinner guests of Mrs. Pauline Wendelken, Sunday.

Wilma Schuette is spending this week with Leona Bauer at Happy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bauer and family of Happy were Sunday visitors in the Gus Leseberg home.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Pauline Wendelken next Thursday afternoon.

The Jolly Dozen 4-H Club will meet with Gertrude Miller, Thursday afternoon. The girls will work on the dresses that they plan on entering in the dress contest at Canyon on June 2.

PIE AND ICE CREAM

Ladies of the Tierra Blanca Home Demonstration Club will hold a social at the school house Friday night, June 5. Pies and ice cream will be sold. Everyone is invited to attend and take a pie.

Judge Burney Slack is in bed with the mumps.

CIVIC PRIDE

Is the Mother of A CITY BEAUTIFUL

"Isn't it a clean, beautiful little city?"

We hear that said frequently by Canyon people who have visited in or passed through some attractive place.

Do visitors to Canyon say that about our city when they return home?

If not, it's our fault, and one that is easily corrected.

The answer, of course, is more civic pride.

Let us look around our individual premises for ways to make them more attractive. Let each do his bit toward keeping the streets and alleys clean.

The time spent in beautifying the home place is an excellent investment.

Let's win for Canyon the title, "The City Beautiful".

HURTENBERGER IS LATEST COACHING SCHOOL ADDITION

Will Introduce New Style Line Instruction
June 3-10

Lou Hurtenberger, line coach at Rice Institute, has been added to the list of instructors for West Texas State's first coaching school, June 3-10. Hurtenberger has gained the reputation as being one of the nation's outstanding coaches, and his addition will introduce a new style of line instruction.

Hurtenberger will assist "Bear" Wolf of North Carolina University in line play, and Dutch Voljes of Duke University. Wolf has been line coach at Texas Christian University under Dutch Meyer since 1929. Recently, he accepted a position as head mentor of the University of North Carolina. He is popularly known as America's greatest gridiron jester because of his prolific joke telling.

Several recognized backfield mentors will elucidate on the different systems as each have successfully employed them. Jack Meagher of Alabama Poly will explain the Notre Dame system as used by the immortal Knute Rockne. Dutch Meyer, head coach at T. C. N. will instruct in single and double wing-back play. Blair Cherry, coach of the twice-state-champion Amarillo Sables will conduct discussion on his version of the double wing-back system.

Glen Rose, coach of the Arkansas Razorbacks, winners of the 1936 Southwest Conference, will take charge of the basketball division. He will be assisted by the "Ambassador of Basketball," Chuck Taylor, trick shot and pass artist. Members of West Texas' athletic squads will be used for demonstration.

Numerous entertainments have been planned to make the week a gala occasion. Complete information may be obtained by communicating with Al Baggett, director of the coaching school.

Buffalo Netmen Win 7-0 Against Panhandle Aggies

Striking with almost flawless uniformity, the Buffs' big raquets held the Panhandle Aggies helpless last Monday to capture a 7-0 victory without the loss of a single set. This win closed the season with a batting average of .500.

Curry at No. 2 started the fireworks when he blasted Murphy 6-2, 6-1. Smalley followed with a sparkling 6-1, 6-0 win over Hibler of the Aggies. Riley defeated Lynch, the menace of W. T. tennis players for the past three years in the ranking battle 6-1, 6-2. Allison ousted Ferguson 6-4, 6-1, and Hemphill thrashed Lacy 7-5, 6-3. Riley and Smalley were badly off form, but managed to defeat Lynch-Murphy 10-8, 6-3 in the ranking doubles battle. Behind a fusillade of consistent smashes, Howard and Curry coasted to a 6-2, 6-1 win over Hibler and Ferguson.

New Library Books

By Mrs. S. D. Burton

"The Exile," by Pearl S. Buck. This is the biography of an American woman in China. It is the life story of Pearl Buck's mother. Everything in it is true except the names of the people are changed. Much of it the author learned from her mother's lips and diaries; the rest from her own observation.

The early scenes are in Holland, from which Carie's ancestors came to America to find freedom to worship. Her childhood was passed happily in the hills of West Virginia, from which she went, the bride of a missionary, to spend a rigorous life in the interior of China. There, with warmth and vigor and understanding, she taught and served a strange people, spending her strength upon them. Of her seven children only three lived to grow up; only one, the author herself, was born in America, in the stately house which to the exiled mother was forever home. But even in a far country, the dauntless woman made an American home with an American garden and held always before herself and her children the bright remembrance that they were American, and in the face of all danger and grief and bewilderment kept to the end a flaming spirit and a stout heart.

"Spring Came on Forever" by Bess Streeter Aldrich is in the direct tradition of "A Lantern in Her Hand." This novel of American life deals with the settlement of the West, running from pioneer days in the 1860's down to the present time. Amalia Stoltz, its heroine, like Abbie Deal of the other story, is the brave and steadfast farm woman who helps her men folk conquer the land.

"Sutter's Gold" by Blaise Cendrars is the story of a poverty-stricken immigrant haunted by dreams of great achievement, Johann Augustus Sutter fought his way to California when half of America was a wilderness. There in the desolation of the Sacramento Valley he created "New Helvetia," that gigantic and fabulously productive domain which made him the first of America's multimillionaires.

Then came the discovery of gold on his territory—the gold that might have made him rich beyond all dreams. The hordes of 49 swept over Sutter's land like a tidal wave, carrying him to an amazing and pathetic destiny.

"The Lord's Anointed," a novel of Hawaii, by Ruth Eleanor McKee. This is a colorful romance of the island empire of Hawaii. Through its tale of struggle and sacrifice, love and murder, faith and treachery, burns the white sunlight of the tropics, playing on gentle islanders, on the missionaries come from the thin air and fogs of New England to bring their God to an unregenerated people. The years of Hawaii's life are spanned by it, from the winter day in 1820 when the first missionaries arrived, to the moment of inevitable American domination, to the modern islands for whom the past is a dim, disappearing memory. It is the story of Hawaii, but even more it is the story of one woman, rising triumphantly above hardship and disaster, above religious and racial strife—Candysta Williams.

"Cowboy Lingo" by Ramon F. Adams. Many books have been written about the cowboy, covering every phase of his life except the most interesting of all—his language. This is the first attempt to make a complete record of the lingo of the cow-camp. It recaptures with incredible thoroughness and veracity the living speech of the Great Plains; it embodies, as few books ever have the very soul of the American West. It is a mine of information on every aspect of the cowboy's life. There are chapters on the ranch, the cowboy's duties, his riding equipment, the round-up, rustlers and outlaws, guns, nicknames, the cowboy dance, etc.

Other recent additions in the library are: West, The Thinking Reed; Fabricius, The Son of Marletta; Pedler, The Shining Cloud; Sayers, Gaudy Night; Jameson, In the Second Year; Dell, Where Three Roads Meet; Sabatini, Benetian Masque; Fletcher, The Ebony Box; Gill, Guardians of the Desert; Raine, The Fighting Tenderfoot; Bentley, Freedom, Farewell; Delafield, Faster! Faster!

John Arnot has added two buffalo skinning knives to his collection in the Museum. These were used in skinning the last buffaloes in this section.

WANTED ONE MILLION MORE MOTORISTS TO TRY PHILLIPS 66 POLY GAS

Something big, new, and important has happened to gasoline... an improvement so outstanding that recent estimates indicate 1,000,000 motorists have switched from pebble, low-mileage motor fuels to Phillips 66 Poly Gas.

During May, to add another million drivers to our many millions of satisfied customers, we urge only one trial tankful. We do so because we realize that any statements of ours—no matter how sincere—are merely "claims" to you until Phillips 66 Poly Gas has made good in your motor.

Whether you judge it by the way your car sprints from a traffic light, sweeps up hills, or eats up the straightaway, you will quickly feel that difference.

The extra energy units of POLYMERization... the accurate monthly re-balance of qualities to match your weather... the higher test and higher anti-knock—these combine to give you more power and more miles, snappier pick-up and sweeter running. All without paying a penny extra per gallon.

But these statements hit only the high spots in the story which your own motor will tell you. And it's a continued story of top performance and utmost economy for every regular user of the new Phillips 66 Poly Gas.

The very next time your gasoline gauge is low, remember that you have an appointment at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

An Exceptional, Long-lasting Oil

No effort or expense is spared by Phillips to make this lubricant worthy of being called "our finest quality." It is genuine premium quality at only 30¢ a quart, in refinery-sealed cans. In bulk, 26¢ a quart.

The photographs deal with the fundamentals of blocking, pass receiving, tackling and evading would-be blockers.

This method should be instrumental in pointing out and helping to correct major faults.

Museum to Remain Open Longer for Summer Months

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum will stay open all day during the summer months. Prof. I. F. Sheffy has announced. This arrangement will be made in order to accommodate visitors who are expected here during the Centennial.

During the regular session the Museum is taken care of by NYA workers, but the College will employ four girls for the summer.

The Museum will open at 9 o'clock in the morning and remain open until noon. It will open again at 2 o'clock, and close at 6 o'clock in the afternoon on week days. On Sunday it will not open in the morning, but will have the same hours in the afternoon.

"Thousands of outsiders are expected during the Centennial, and we want them as well as local people to see the Museum," Mr. Sheffy said.

Rains Bring

It was the result of this high water that the gas main was broken east of Canyon, shutting off gas service during Monday afternoon.

The Tierra Blanca has been the highest it has been for a number of years, and has kept the highest average level that has been witnessed in 10 or 12 years.

Citizens north and northwest of town were given a scare Tuesday night and yesterday when it was reported that the Amarillo dam was nearing the top, and that a break might result if water started over the spillway. The dam has no flood gate. A break in the dam would have wiped out several ranch properties along the Palo Duro, as the water stands 41 feet deep, the largest amount of water that has ever stood in the lake.

Many citizens of Canyon rushed to the lake Tuesday evening when the report came of danger, and others viewed the lake yesterday morning. Unless a heavy flood falls to the west of the lake, authorities believe there will be no danger.

For the first time in many years the highway west of Canyon to Farwell is pronounced practically impassable. Through traffic to Clovis is directed by Lubbock, about 175 miles out of the way, but on paved highways.

Farmers who have been in town report many fresh rains during the past week. A 2-inch rain would cover only a small section, while surrounding territory would receive only a sprinkle.

Lakes over the county are filled for the first time in many years.

Weather reports indicate that the rain is not over for the Panhandle.

Measurements of the rains for the week are as follows:

Reported last week, 1.93 inches. Friday night, 30. Saturday and Sunday night, 80. Sunday, 1.15. Monday, .15. Tuesday, .60. Wednesday, .57.

Two More Cabins For Palo Duro Are Given Approval

Two more double cabins have been authorized for the Palo Duro State Park. Supt. Wm. Anderson received notice of these approvals this week, with authority to start excavation as soon as possible. The two cabins will be located west of the cabin on the rim which will be completed this week, making five cabins now available.

All cabins in the Park have been leased for the Art School which will be conducted through the first six weeks of the summer session under the direction of Miss Isabel Robinson. Class work will be conducted in the lodge, which has been given over entirely to the art students during this period. Miss Robinson states that all cabins will be filled, and a large number of students will drive to the Park daily.

With the completion of the double cabin on the rim, Mr. Anderson will put one crew of men back on the construction of the entrance. This work has been stopped while work was rushed in order to complete the cabin in time for the art school.

Forms were set ready to run the last section of No. 1 crossing before the high water reached the Park this week. The flood is the highest that has been experienced since work was started at the Park, and considerable damage is expected. Many trees were washed out, and all of the crossings will be badly damaged by the flood. However, Mr. Anderson expects to repair all damage as soon as the floods recede.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson attended a conference of all superintendents held at Albuquerque last week, returning Sunday.

Miss Emil Brewer of Amarillo and Mrs. Blanche Brewer of Memphis were guests Saturday night in the home of Mrs. Irene Wilson and Mrs. Jamie Talley.

and economic ideas. Gold and jewels did not mean economic security but adventure to them. "Development of the creative sense is more difficult than construction of the material side; that is why we avoid it," he asserted.

Dr. Grimes made the challenge that truth cannot be found by group discussions or reading. "You have to work at it yourself to get anything out of it. Too many people's souls turn over and go to sleep after hearing a truth," he said.

The Buffalo Band, directed by C. E. Strain, gave the commencement concert Monday evening, which was followed by the reception of President and Mrs. J. A. Hill.

"Elijah" was presented Tuesday night at the auditorium by the college chorus and orchestra. Wallace R. Clark is director of these musical organizations. Solo parts were taken in this production by Miss Ada V. Clark, Miss Hope Wells, O. T. Craig and Houston Bright.

Commencement exercises for the high school were held last night at the education building, with diplomas being awarded to thirty graduates. Rev. C. L. Dickey preached the commencement sermon for this class at the Methodist church Sunday night.

The final exercises for commencement will be held today. Dean Colby D. Hall of Texas Christian University will address the graduating class this morning at 10:00 o'clock, following which President Hill will grant degrees to 94 members of the class. The annual alumni dinner will be held at noon at Randall Hall.
